 The ELI is a proud member of UCIEP, a consortium of University and College Intensive English Programs

Welcome to the English Language Institute (ELI)

The University of Florida English Language Institute offers intensive English programs that prepare students for using English in the real world. Our methods of instruction are based on current research in the fields of language teaching, acquisition, learning and assessment, and the more than 60 years of experience we have had teaching English to international students at the University of Florida. Our faculty and staff are committed to excellence in providing quality service and education. We offer English instruction that prepares you for using English in an academic or professional context as well as the culture that is all around you.

Process

Please make sure that the address you enter matches what you wrote down when you initially opened your bank account or else the authorization will fail

*Note: If you keep receiving an “authorization failed message” please come back to this page to ensure that you entered the correct address. Remember, the charge will not go through if you enter in a different address than what was initially entered when you opened your bank account.

Also, if you are paying with an international credit card and you keep seeing an error message you should make sure that your international credit card company/bank approves of such purchases.

Your transaction was unsuccessful.

Authentication Failed

If it was a simple typing mistake then click on the button below and re-enter the card information. Otherwise your order will not be processed

Cancel

*Note: If you receive an “Authentication Failed” screen after submitting your payment it most likely means that the information you entered for your credit card does not match what is on file at your banking institution. Also, it is possible that your bank/credit company has a limit on how much you can spend, or that they are considering this a suspicious charge, thus blocking the charge. Please contact your bank first before contacting the ELI.
