St. Augustine

Living history!

This Saturday, April 4th, we're headed to Historic St. Augustine! St. Augustine is the oldest European city in the U.S., founded in 1565. While there, you can do a LOT! You can spend all day in the really beautiful OLD CITY and walk through the SPANISH QUARTER, which has lots of RESTAURANTS and SHOPPING. See the CASTILLO DE SAN MARCOS, the most well preserved example of a Spanish fort in the U.S with reenactments and real cannons. Beaches! See lots of "OLDEST" places:

- *Oldest Wooden School House
- *Oldest Store
- *Oldest House

See the famous FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH. Go to RIPLEY'S BELIEVE IT OR NOT museum. See the BASILICA CATHEDRAL, and much, much more!

WHEN: Saturday, April 4th. We will meet at Norman Garage at 10:00 AM. We will return somewhere between 6 PM and 10 PM. We will go rain or shine..

COST: You can bring spending money for the museums and food. The historic sites and museums are generally between $5 and $10 each for admission.

Come for FUN and lots of U.S. HISTORY!

The Next Trip

Next weekend, we will be going to Skate Station Funworks right here in Gainesville. Details will be on the Activities Board and in next week's Weekly.

Manners

Q: What's the difference between a college and a university?

A: Not as much as there used to be; colleges lately seem to be taking the name university even though they aren't big enough. Traditionally, the main difference is that a university is a larger institution made up of many colleges.

Q: Is the word "redneck" discriminating?

A: Like so many words in this category, it depends on who's using it and how it's used. The term traditionally refers to less-educated, rural southerners (working out in the sun tends to produce a "red neck"). It can be used by such people in a gentle, fun way, but it also can be directed at people to say that you think they are ignorant or backward. In general, unless you're sure, it's best to avoid using such terms.

Q: Why are women so hard to understand?

A: Well, I'd tell you to ask one, but you might not understand the answer.

Grammar

Q: Can we use FANBOYS (for, and, nor, but, or, yet, so) conjunctions in other places in the sentence other than between two clauses?

A: Some of them. The conjunctions and, but, or, and yet can be used between single words or phrases in the conjunction sense. The word neither has to be added to nor in other situations. For and so don't work as conjunctions other than between sentences.

Notes from the Office

- Library Fines and Infirmary Fees—Since we're coming closer to the end of the semester, we just want to remind you that now is a good time to think about clearing up any fees and fines that you might have with the university. If there are any outstanding balances owed, we won't be able to release any of your academic information or certificates to you, and you will not be permitted to take the ELI TOEFL.

- Part-time students and TOEFL: Part time students, don't forget-if you wish to take the ELI TOEFL with the other students, you must actually sign up for it in the ELI Main Office, Room 315. If you have not already done so, please go and sign up as soon as possible.
