Outdoor fun!

This Saturday, March 20th will be our Welcome Picnic for our new B-term Students.

This is a fun day in the sun to welcome the new ELI students! All ELI students, staff, and friends are invited. This will be a picnic at Yulee Pit. There will be sports, games and great conversation.

WHEN: Saturday, March 20th at 1pm. If it is raining at 11:00am, the picnic will be in the Florida Room in Norman Hall. Even though this is not a carpool trip, please sign up on the activities board by 4:00 PM on Thursday, March 18th so we know how much food to order.

WHERE: Behind Broward and Yulee Halls (Across 13th Street from the ELI).

COST: This trip is completely FREE!

WHAT TO BRING: Wear tennis shoes and sun-block. We will provide the food so come hungry!!

Manners and Culture

Q: What does the name "America" mean?

A: It's a mapmaker's mistake. Back in the age of exploration, there was an Italian explorer named Amerigo Vespucci. A mapmaker in the 16th Century mistook the label on a trace of his route to the new world as a label for the new world, and the mistake has been duplicated ever since. Some historians dispute this account, but it's still among the most widely credited theories.

Q: Why do English speakers capitalize the pronoun "I"?

A: No one seems to know for certain. The most widely accepted theory that I can find is that it's because it's the only pronoun of only one letter, so it helps distinguish it in a sentence.

Grammar

Q: What's the difference between "for instance" and "for example"?

A: Very little in meaning. “For instance” is perhaps a bit more conversational, but both are used in speaking and writing.

Q: How can I use “shall” in a sentence?

A: Really, anymore, you can’t. As recently as 40 years ago, it was considered the proper future tense modal for the first person (“I shall, we shall”) instead of “will”. But it isn’t anymore. The only use we still give it is for polite offers or requests, as in, “Shall I get you some more coffee?” or, “Shall we go?”

Quote of the Week

Before you agree to do anything that might add even the smallest amount of stress to your life, ask yourself: What is my truest intention? Give yourself time to let a yes resound within you. When it's right, I guarantee that your entire body will feel it.
