Out and About: Satchel's Pizza

--by Todd Allen

Are you looking for something a little different from the standard Archer Road chains and fast food? Try a local Gainesville favorite, Satchel's Pizza! Satchel's is a unique place in an out-of-the-way location. They have amazing pizza that you can customize by the slice (the slices are huge--one pizza can make a meal for a lot of folks!), and great calzones and salad. They also make their own sodas from scratch. There's indoor (carefully distanced!) and outdoor seating. They're open Tuesday through Saturday, and you have to have cash; they don't take credit cards. They're located on NE 23rd street; the number 24 bus goes there, and the stop right after NE 15th Street is the closest. Check out their menu at <https://www.satchelspizza.com/menu>. While you are there, look at all the quirky art. The beautiful stained glass in the side porch is fab!

Manners and Culture

Q: I feel sick. What should I do?

A: At this time, only people with scheduled appointments are allowed into the Student Health Center at UF and many other health care offices, so the first step is to make an appointment. If you need help making an appointment, talk to Victoria (vcshelly@ufl.edu).

If you think you have COVID-19 contact the Health Center at (352) 392-1161, and a nurse will talk to you about your symptoms. They will tell you what to do next. You can also visit UF Screen, Test and Protect (<https://coronavirus.uflhealth.org/screen-test-protect-2/>) for instructions.

If you do not have COVID-19 symptoms but still feel sick, call your doctor's office. Many doctors are giving care over the phone, by video calls, or in person.

The emergency room is for emergencies, such as severe pain, trouble breathing, broken bones, etc. You can also use the emergency room after business hours.

For phone calls and in-person visits, have your insurance card, your ID, your UFID, and your health information handy. You might need to give this information to your health care provider.

The ELI Weekly needs you! Send your reports about activities, book/ movie reviews, and grammar/culture questions to Maya Shastri (mshastri@ufl.edu).

Birthdays!

Notes from the Office

Students wanted: The ELI Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion committee is looking for students to be part of a group that will give their thoughts about making the ELI a more welcoming and accepting place for people of all races, religions, gender identities, sexual orientations, social statuses and abilities. If you are interested, please email Thomas Dolce (tomdolce@ufl.edu) for more information. You can also read the ELI's statement of commitment to diversity, equity, and inclusion here: <https://eli.ufl.edu/about-us/uf-eli-commitment-to-diversity-equity-and-inclusion/>.

International Education Week: Can you do a cultural dance, prepare traditional food from your country, play music or sing a song, or make a presentation about your country and culture? The ELI needs students to feature on our YouTube page for International Education Week in November. Email Christine Voigt (christinevoigt@ufl.edu) if you would like to make a video to represent your country.

Photo Contest: The Department of Tourism, Hospitality & Event Management is hosting a photo contest open to all UF Students. Prizes include scholarships and T-Shirts! The theme is #IAMWithTHEM – send in a photo of the people, pets, places, etc. that make you happy. Details about the contest are here: <http://hdp.ufl.edu/about/departments/them/articles/2020/i-am-with-them-photo-contest.html>.
